Wayne State University Civil Discourse Student Fellowship Application

Approximately 10-16 diverse students are selected as Civil Discourse Fellows. Fellows meet regularly over the course of two years to participate in an engaging environment that encourages dialogue, understanding, and creating. Students will receive a $1,000 stipend per year for their full and complete participation in the Fellowship.

Fellows' requirements

- WSU student
- Participation for two academic years plus one year with involvement in the community
- All religious, spiritual and philosophical identities are welcome
- Attendance for bi-weekly group meetings, including lectures and occasional field trips
- Signed contract regarding stipend

Application Submissions

Applications are to be submitted by email, either as a typed or handwritten (print legibly) attachment to arianamentzel@gmail.com no later than April 30, 2019.

Review Process and Notification

Each submission is examined for completeness and accuracy. Qualified entries are then evaluated by a team of judges comprised of the Detroit Center for Civil Discourse professionals. The team of judges may, at their sole discretion, consult with additional experts to assist in evaluating the merits of each submission. The team of judges will identify which applicants will be named Fellows and contact applicants on or before June 30th, 2019 with an official notice of acceptance.

If you have any questions, please email Ariana, DCCD Assistant Director, at arianamentzel@gmail.com.

The Detroit Center for Civil Discourse Wayne State University Student Fellowship does not discriminate based on race, gender, religion, ethnicity or disability.
